6. At all times herein mentioned, defendant, St. Rose of Lima Church, was a Roman Catholic Church or parish within and under the authority of defendant Roman Catholic Diocese of Brooklyn.

7. At all times herein mentioned defendant, Roman Catholic Diocese of Brooklyn, oversaw, managed, controlled, directed and operated defendant, St. Rose of Lima Church.

8. At all times herein mentioned, defendant, Roman Catholic Diocese of Brooklyn, managed, supervised and controlled those who were employed or otherwise worked for defendant, St. Rose of Lima Church, including, but not limited to priests, nuns and other personnel and volunteers, both while they were on premises and engaged in off-premises activities related to their employment with defendant, defendant, St. Rose of Lima Church.

9. At all times herein mentioned, St. Rose of Lima Church, managed, supervised and controlled those who were employed or otherwise worked for defendant, St. Rose of Lima Church, including, but not limited to priests, nuns and other personnel and volunteers, both while they were on premises and engaged in off-premises activities related to their employment with defendant, St. Rose of Lima Church.

10. From on or about January 1, 1974 through on or about December 31, 1974, plaintiff, an infant, attended defendant, St. Rose of Lima Church.

11. From on or about January 1, 1974 through on or about December 31, 1974, plaintiff was a parishioner of defendant, St. Rose of Lima Church.

12. At all times herein mentioned and relevant to the allegations set forth herein Father Romano J. Ferrara, assigned as a priest by defendants, Roman Catholic Diocese of Brooklyn and St. Rose of Lima Church.

13. At all times herein mentioned and relevant to the allegations set forth herein Father Romano J. Ferrara, was a priest at defendant, St. Rose of Lima Church.

14. At all times herein mentioned, Father Romano J. Ferrara, was employed by defendant, Roman Catholic Diocese of Brooklyn.

15. At all times herein mentioned, Father Romano J. Ferrara, was employed by the defendant, St. Rose of Lima Church.

16. At all times herein mentioned, Father Romano J. Ferrara, was employed by the defendant, St. Rose of Lima Church, as a priest.

17. Through his position with defendant, Roman Catholic diocese of Brooklyn, Father Romano J. Ferrara, was put in direct contact with plaintiff, Peter DiGiorgio, then an infant.

18. Through his position with defendant, St. Rose of Lima Church, Father Romano J. Ferrara, was put in direct contact with plaintiff, Peter DiGiorgio, then an infant.

19. That on or about January 1, 1974 through December 31, 1974, the Father Romano J. Ferrara, sexually abused the plaintiff.

20. At all times herein mentioned, Father Romano J. Ferrara, was under the management, supervision, employ, direction and/or control of defendant, Roman Catholic Diocese of Brooklyn.

21. At all times herein mentioned, Father Romano J. Ferrara, was under the management, supervision, employ, direction and/or control of defendant, St. Rose of Lima Church.

22. Defendants, Roman Catholic Diocese of Brooklyn and St. Rose of Lima Church, knew and/or reasonably should have known and/or knowingly condoned and/or covered up, the inappropriate and unlawful sexual activities of Father Romano J. Ferrara, who sexually abused the plaintiff, Peter DiGiorgio, while plaintiff, Peter DiGiorgio, was an infant.

23. Defendant, Roman Catholic Diocese of Brooklyn, had the responsibility to manage, supervise, control and/or direct priests assigned to St. Rose of Lima Church.

24. Defendant, St. Rose of Lima Church, had the responsibility to manage, supervise, control and/or direct priests assigned to St. Rose of Lima Church.

25. At all relevant times, defendants, Roman Catholic Diocese of Brooklyn and St.

Rose of Lima Church, had a duty not to aid pedophiles such as Father Romano J. Ferrara, by assigning, maintaining and/or appointing him to positions in which he would have access to minors.

26. At all relevant times, Father Romano J. Ferrara, used his position as a priest to entice, take control of plaintiff, Peter DiGiorgio, and sexually assault, sexually abuse or have sexual contact with plaintiff, Peter DiGiorgio, while plaintiff was a minor.

27. Defendants, individually, jointly and/or severally, violated various New York statutes, including, but not limited to N.Y. Soc. Serv. Law §§413 and 420, which require school officials and teachers to report suspected cases of child abuse and impose liability for failure to report.

28. Plaintiff suffered physical and psychological injuries and damages as a result of his childhood sexual abuse by Father Romano J. Ferrara.

29. As a direct result of defendants' conduct, plaintiff suffered and will continue to suffer great pain of body and mind, severe and permanent emotional distress and physical manifestations of emotional distress. As a result of his childhood sexual abuse, plaintiff has been prevented from obtaining the full enjoyment of life, has incurred and will continue to incur expenses for medical and psychological treatment, therapy and counseling and has incurred and will continue to incur loss of income and/or loss of earning capacity.

30. Because of his childhood sexual abuse, plaintiff Peter DiGiorgio is unable to fully describe all of the details of that abuse and the extent of the harm that he suffered as a result.

AS AND FOR A FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION
NEGLIGENT HIRING, RETENTION, SUPERVISION AND/OR DIRECTION

31. Plaintiff repeats and realleges each and every allegation set forth in paragraphs 1 through 30 as if fully set forth herein.

32. The sexual abuse of children by adults, including priests and teachers, is foreseeable.

33. Defendants, Roman Catholic Diocese of Brooklyn and St. Rose of Lima Church, at all relevant times represented and held out to the public, defendant, St. Rose of Lima Church, to be safe places for learning and participating in youth activities.

34. At all relevant times, defendants, Roman Catholic Diocese of Brooklyn and St. Rose of Lima Church, were each under an express and/or implied duty to protect and care for plaintiff, Peter DiGiorgio.

35. Defendants, Roman Catholic Diocese of Brooklyn and St. Rose of Lima Church, negligently hired, retained, directed and supervised Father Romano J. Ferrara, because they knew or should have known that Father Romano J. Ferrara, posed a threat of sexual abuse of children such as plaintiff.

36. Defendants, Roman Catholic Diocese of Brooklyn and St. Rose of Lima Church, knew or should have known that Father Romano J. Ferrara, had a propensity to engage in the conduct which caused plaintiff's injuries prior to or about the time of the occurrence of these injuries.

37. Defendants, Roman Catholic Diocese of Brooklyn and St. Rose of Lima Church, owed a duty of care to all minors, including plaintiff, who were likely to come under the influence or supervision of Father Romano J. Ferrara, in their role as teacher, priest, counselor, trustee, director, officer, employee, agent, servant and/or volunteer to ensure that Father Romano J. Ferrara, did not use their assigned positions to injure minors by sexual assault, sexual abuse or sexual contact with minors.

38. Father Romano J. Ferrara, sexually assaulted, sexually abused and/or had sexual contact with plaintiff, Peter DiGiorgio, on defendants' premises, including defendant, St. Rose of Lima Church, 130 Beach 84th Street, Rockaway Beach, New York.

39. Defendants, Roman Catholic Diocese of Brooklyn and St. Rose of Lima Church, were put on notice of Father Romano J. Ferrara's improper and inappropriate actions toward minors.

40. Defendants, Roman Catholic Diocese of Brooklyn and St. Rose of Lima Church, were negligent in failing to properly supervise Father Romano J. Ferrara.

41. Defendants, Roman Catholic Diocese of Brooklyn and St. Rose of Lima Church, were negligent in failing to properly manage, Father Romano J. Ferrara.

42. Defendants, Roman Catholic Diocese of Brooklyn and St. Rose of Lima Church, were negligent in failing to properly control Father Romano J. Ferrara.

43. At all relevant times, defendants, Roman Catholic Diocese of Brooklyn and St. Rose of Lima Church, were willful, wanton, malicious, reckless and/or outrageous in their disregard for the rights and safety of plaintiff.

44. As a direct and proximate result of defendants' above described omissions, plaintiff has suffered and will continue to suffer the injuries described herein.

45. By reason of the foregoing, the Defendants are liable to plaintiff jointly, severally and/or in the alternative, for compensatory damages and punitive damages, together with costs and interest in excess of the jurisdictional limits of all lower courts which would otherwise have jurisdiction.

AS AND FOR A SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION NEGLIGENCE/GROSS NEGLIGENCE

46. Plaintiff repeats and realleges each and every allegation set forth in paragraphs 1 through 45 as if fully set forth herein.

47. Defendants, Roman Catholic Diocese of Brooklyn and St. Rose of Lima Church, knew or negligently failed to know that Father Romano J. Ferrara, posed a threat of sexual abuse to children.

48. The acts of Father Romano J. Ferrara, as described above, were undertaken, enabled by, and/or during the course of their respective employment, assignment, appointment and/or agency with defendants, Roman Catholic Diocese of Brooklyn and St. Rose of Lima Church.

49. Defendants, Roman Catholic Diocese of Brooklyn and St. Rose of Lima Church:

- a. gave improper or ambiguous orders or failed to make proper regulations, and/or employed improper persons in work involving risk of harm to others;
- b. failed to adequately supervise the activities of Father Romano J. Ferrara;
- c. failed to adequately supervise and safeguard minors attending defendant, St. Rose of Lima Church;
- d. permitted and/or intentionally failed and/or neglected to prevent negligent or tortious conduct by persons, whether or not their servants, agents or employees, upon premises under their control; and
- e. allowed the acts of omission and/or commission of any or all of the allegations set forth in this Complaint to occur.

50. At all relevant times Father Romano J. Ferrara, was under the supervision, employ, direction and/or control of defendants, Roman Catholic Diocese of Brooklyn and St. Rose of Lima Church.

51. At all relevant times, defendants, Roman Catholic Diocese of Brooklyn and St. Rose of Lima Church, were wanton, willful, malicious, reckless and outrageous in their disregard for the rights and safety of plaintiff, which conduct was equivalent to criminal conduct.

52. As a direct and/or indirect result of said conduct, plaintiff has suffered injuries and damages as described herein.

53. By reason of the foregoing, defendants jointly, severally and/or in the alternative are liable to plaintiff for compensatory damages and for punitive damages, together with interest and costs in excess of the jurisdictional limits of all lower courts which would otherwise have jurisdiction.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION BREACH OF FIDUCIARY DUTY

54. Plaintiff repeats and realleges each and every allegation set forth in paragraphs 1 through 53 as if fully set forth herein.

55. At all relevant times, there existed a fiduciary relationship of trust, confidence, and reliance between plaintiff, on the one hand, and defendants, Roman Catholic Diocese of Brooklyn and St. Rose of Lima Church, on the other, based upon the entrustment of plaintiff, while he was a minor child, to the care and supervision of the defendants and each of them, as a parishioner, worshiper, invitee, attendee or guest at defendant. St. Rose of Lima Church, and as a student, invitee, attendee or guest at St. Rose of Lima Church. The entrustment of the plaintiff to the care and supervision of the defendants and each of them, while plaintiff was a minor child, required the defendants to assume a fiduciary role and to act in the best interests of the plaintiff and to protect him while he was a minor and vulnerable child.

56. Pursuant to their fiduciary relationship with plaintiff, defendants were entrusted with the well-being, care and safety of plaintiff.

57. Pursuant to their fiduciary relationship with Plaintiff, defendants assumed a duty to act in the best interests of Plaintiff.

58. Defendants, Roman Catholic Diocese of Brooklyn and St. Rose of Lima Church, breached their fiduciary duties to plaintiff.

59. At all relevant times, the actions and/or inactions of defendant, Roman Catholic Diocese of Brooklyn and St. Rose of Lima Church, were willful, malicious, wanton, reckless and outrageous in their disregard for the rights and safety of plaintiff.

60. As a direct result of defendants' conduct, plaintiff has suffered injuries and damages described herein.

61. By reason of the foregoing, Defendants, jointly, severally and/or in the alternative are liable to plaintiff for compensatory damages and for punitive damages, together with interest and costs in excess of the jurisdictional limits of all lower courts which would otherwise have jurisdiction.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION
BREACH OF NON-DELEGABLE DUTY

62. Plaintiff repeats and realleges each and every allegation set forth in paragraphs 1 through 61 as of fully set forth herein.

63. When he was a minor, plaintiff Peter DiGiorgio was placed in the care of defendants, Roman Catholic Diocese of Brooklyn and St. Rose of Lima Church, for the purposes of providing plaintiff with a safe environment in which to participate in youth activities and receive an education. There was thus created a non-delegable duty of trust between plaintiff and defendants.

64. Plaintiff, Peter DiGiorgio was a vulnerable child when placed in the care of defendants, Roman Catholic Diocese of Brooklyn and St. Rose of Lima Church.

65. Defendants, Roman Catholic Diocese of Brooklyn and St. Rose of Lima Church, and each of them, were in the best position to prevent plaintiff from being abused and/or to have learned of the repeated abuse by Father Romano J. Ferrara, and to have stopped it.

66. As evidenced by the fact that plaintiff, Peter DiGiorgio, was sexually abused as a minor child entrusted to the care of the defendants, these defendants breached their non-delegable duty to plaintiff.

67. At all relevant times, Father Romano J. Ferrara, was under the supervision, employment, direction and/or control of defendants, Roman Catholic Diocese of Brooklyn and St. Rose of Lima Church.

68. As a result of the sexually abusive conduct of Father Romano J. Ferrara, plaintiff Peter DiGiorgio suffered the injuries and damages described herein, the full extent of which is unknown at present.

69. By reason of the foregoing, defendants jointly, severally and/or in the alternative are liable to plaintiff for compensatory damages and for punitive damages, together with interest and costs in excess of the jurisdictional limits of all lower courts which would otherwise have jurisdiction.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION
NEGLIGENT INFLICTION OF EMOTIONAL DISTRESS

70. Plaintiff repeats and realleges each and every allegation set forth in paragraphs 1 through 69 above as if set forth at length herein.

71. As described above, defendants, Roman Catholic Diocese of Brooklyn, St. Rose of Lima Church and Father Romano J. Ferrara, acted in a negligent and/or grossly negligent manner.

72. The actions of defendants, Roman Catholic Diocese of Brooklyn, St. Rose of Lima Church and Father Romano J. Ferrara, endangered plaintiff's safety and caused him to fear for his own safety.

73. As a direct and proximate result of the actions of defendants, Roman Catholic Diocese of Brooklyn and St. Rose of Lima Church, which included, but were not limited to, negligent and/or grossly negligent conduct, plaintiff suffered severe injuries and damages as described herein, including, but not limited to, mental and emotional distress.

74. By reason of the foregoing, defendants, jointly, severally and/or in the alternative are liable to plaintiff for compensatory damages and for punitive damages, together with costs and interest in excess of the jurisdictional limits of all lower courts which would otherwise have jurisdiction.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION
BREACH OF DUTY *IN LOCO PARENTIS

75. Plaintiff repeats and realleges each and every allegation set forth in paragraphs 1 through 72 as if set forth at length herein.

76. While he was a minor, plaintiff was entrusted by his parents to the control of the defendants, Roman Catholic Diocese of Brooklyn and St. Rose of Lima Church, for the purposes of providing plaintiff with an education and allowing him to participate in youth activities sponsored by defendants. During the times that plaintiff was at school and during the times that he participated in youth activities, he was under the supervision and control of defendants, Roman Catholic Diocese of Brooklyn and St. Rose of Lima Church. These defendants, and each of them, at all relevant times and now, owed and owe a duty to children entrusted their care to act in loco parentis and to prevent foreseeable injuries.

77. Defendants, Roman Catholic Diocese of Brooklyn and St. Rose of Lima Church, breached their duty to act in loco parentis.

78. At all relevant times the actions of defendants, Roman Catholic Diocese of Brooklyn and St. Rose of Lima Church, were willful, malicious, wanton, reckless, negligent, grossly negligent and/or outrageous in their disregard for the rights and safety of plaintiff.

79. As a direct result of defendants' conduct, plaintiff, Peter DiGiorgio, has suffered the injuries and damages described herein.

80. By reason of the foregoing, defendants jointly, severally and/or in the alternative, are liable to plaintiff for compensatory damages, and for punitive damages, together with interest and costs in excess of the jurisdictional limits of all lower courts which would otherwise have jurisdiction.

SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION
BREACH OF STATUTORY DUTY PURSUANT TO NEW YORK
SOCIAL SERVICES LAW §§ 413, 420 TO REPORT ABUSE

81. Plaintiff repeats and realleges each and every allegation set forth in paragraphs 1 through 80 as if fully set forth herein.

82. Pursuant to N.Y. Social Services Law §§413, 420, defendants, Roman Catholic Diocese of Brooklyn and St. Rose of Lima Church, had a statutory duty to report the reasonable suspicion of abuse of children in their care.

83. Defendants, Roman Catholic Diocese of Brooklyn and St. Rose of Lima Church, breached that duty by knowingly and willfully failing to report reasonable suspicion of abuse by Father Romano J. Ferrara, of children in their care.

84. As a direct and/or indirect result of said conduct, plaintiff has suffered injuries and damages as described above.

85. By reason of the foregoing, defendants jointly, severally and/or in the alternative are liable to plaintiff for compensatory damages and punitive damages, together with costs and interest in excess of the jurisdictional limits of all lower courts which would otherwise have jurisdiction.

WHEREFORE, plaintiff demands judgment against defendants on each cause of action as follows:

- A. Awarding compensatory damages in an amount to be proven at trial, but in any event in an amount that exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower courts which would otherwise have jurisdiction;

- B. Awarding punitive damages to the extent permitted by law;
- C. Awarding prejudgment interest to the extent permitted by law;
- D. Awarding costs and fees of this action, including attorneys' fees, to the extent permitted by law;
- E. Awarding such other and further relief as to this Court may seem just and proper.

JURY DEMAND

Plaintiff demands a trial by jury on all issues so triable.
